PRIVACY STATEMENT

We take your privacy seriously. Because we gather certain types of information about our users and members we would like you to understand the terms and conditions surrounding the collection and use of that information. This privacy statement discloses the types of information we gather, how we use it, and how you can correct or change it. These privacy guidelines apply to the SCAC Web site that you will be viewing, which is operated by us directly.

1. What information does SCAC collect?

Our primary goal in collecting personal information is to provide our members with the best and most useful content and services.

We collect personally identifiable information when you provide it to us, such as when you register as a Member on our Website, when you purchase a membership or register for an e-mail newsletter or when you register to use certain services. Several of the services that we offer on our site, such as the Forums or Online shop, may require registration as a condition of use. Once you register or become a member with the SCAC Website you are no longer anonymous to us. We may also receive information about you from other sources and add it to the information you provided to us.

2. What is SCAC's practice regarding cookies?

Your Internet browser has a feature called "cookies" which stores small amounts of data on your computer about your visit to our Website. You do not need to have cookies turned on to visit most of our site, although active participation in certain areas of our site may require cookies. Cookies alone tell us nothing about who you are unless you specifically give us personally identifiable information when, in which case we use the information to enhance your services. You may elect not to allow cookies to be collected by adjusting your settings on your browser.

3. How does SCAC use the information?

We use the information we gather for four general purposes:

- 1.To customize the content you see.
- 2.To enhance the user experience .

We use tracking information to determine how well each page performs overall based on traffic patterns to those pages. This helps us continue to build a better Website for you.

- 3.To fulfill your requests for certain services, such as sending out electronic newsletters and enabling users to participate in forums,polls, contests and online shop.
- 4.To send you information you agreed to receive about topics we think will be of interest to you.

4. How does SCAC share the information?

Personally identifiable information

We will not make your personally identifiable information available to anyone with exception to being Legally Bound and when We have your consent to do so;

Legally Bound
